RECIPE FOR DE-STRESSING

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

(Phil. 4:6-7)

Preheat by counting your blessings.

Begin with sparkling clean utensils. It is important to wash away past failures.

Separate seven days into equal parts of giving and receiving. Use only the best ingredients. Remember everything you add changes the outcome.

Defrost early. Whip briskly all negative thoughts.

Cut all portions into small pieces. Everything is easier to manage in small pieces.

If one portion seems especially tough, ask for help; and beat in harmony until you can see a smooth and shiny surface.

Mix gently.

Wait patiently for ingredients to rise. While you are waiting, add other ingredients: a pinch of gratitude, a handful of forgiveness, a dash of hope, a drop of kindness. Do not keep the lid tight. Let off a little steam frequently.

Remove from heat at the first sign of burning.

Garnish with a smile or a tear. Each has its own time. Remember this may not turn out exactly like the picture.

Don't worry—just try again.

Serves one or a crowd.

Enjoy!

AN ORDINARY DAY TURNS EXTRAORDINARY

Jargalmaa and her husband moved to southern Mongolia to begin a work of evangelism.

God dramatically changed Jargalmaa's life 14 years earlier when she received her very first gift.

It was a shoebox from Operation Christmas Child. Her favorite items were the pretty paper and a set of hair clips.

Jargalmaa looks back at this gift today and remembers the note in her shoebox which said, "You are valuable and loved by God."

This was the first time in her life someone had told her she was loved. Now she knew God loved her.

Through the ministry of Operation Christmas Child Jargalmaa received Christ as her Savior and not only her but her entire family.

Now she and her husband are in the community where she was raised with the desire to lead others to Christ.

We will continue collecting the following for the month of April:

Washcloths and soap toothbrushes (no toothpaste please), hairbrushes, combs, and hair accessories

Please remember no liquids or creams are allowed.

We will continue to accept t-shirts for jump ropes.
