SEPTEMBER 2023

DEACON SELECTION PROCEDURE

(Please, read carefully)

The deacon board desires the help of the congregation in selecting new deacons for the upcoming church year (23-24). We desire, if possible, to select four (4) deacons (2 to replace those rotating off) which would increase our present board from five to seven. This would decrease the number of families from the present 18 families per deacon to 12 and lighten the load for the deacons. On Sunday, Sept. 3, a list of those eligible will be handed out to each church member as you leave the service. Copies will also be available on Sept. 10, (for those not present on Sept. 3.) Before you make a nomination you MUST ASK your nominee if they are WILLING TO SERVE, IF ELECTED, before submitting their name.

On Sunday, September 17, there will be a called business meeting and the members will be given ballots (not the original list, but the ones you have asked that are willing to serve) for you to vote.

We must have your nominee's name no later than noon on Monday, September 11. The ballot needs to be prepared on Monday afternoon due to secretarial vacation that week after Monday.

A recap:

Get the list. If you would like to make a nomination, check with the person on the list you would like to nominate. If willing, you submit their name to the pastor, Chairman of Deacons: Glenn Owens, or call the church office no later than noon, September 11. A ballot, with the names of those willing to serve will be given out for the vote, at the called business meeting on Sunday, September 17, 2023.

JESUS LOVES YOU and SO DO I

Yuri Lopez grew up in 14 different orphanages in Honduras. There was no electricity and no running water. Rarely were there three meals a day, more often only one. At age 6 Yuri received a shoebox from Operation Christmas Child. She had never received a gift of any kind before. The items were precious to her and what she most loved was the picture in the box of the girl who packed her shoebox and who wrote JESUS LOVES YOU and SO DO I. She slept with her box for many years. At age 13 she felt all hope was gone and took her shoebox up into the hills and cried out to God. She then remembered the words in the box JESUS LOVES YOU and SO DO I. She gave her heart to Christ then and God began to work in her life. She was adopted as a teenager by a family in Kentucky. Today Yuri shares her story but more important she shares the love of Jesus to all she meets.

A Reminder: It cost $10.00 per shoebox to send. Contributions toward the mailing of the boxes are also welcome.
